Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

SouthCol Advisors, LLC

What we do

How does SouthCol Advisors protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information.

How does SouthCol Advisors collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or enter into an investment advisory contract
- Give us your income and assets information.
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio or give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from other companies

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under certain state law

Definitions

Affiliates
